

PACKO GUALANDRIS

DJ / Producer

Progressive House, Melodic Techno & Techno

BIOGRAPHY

Packo Gualandris is one of the most successful electronic music exports from Luxembourg, Europe. Spinning records since 1999, he is renowned for his high quality Tech-House, Progressive House & Techno sets that guarantee the transformation of the crowd into a wildly energetic dancing bundle, Europe-wide!

Since 2002 Packo is playing his DJ-sets in Luxembourg and shortly after crossed the borders to mix in Germany, Belgium, France, Czech Republic, Poland, Portugal and Russia.

As the owner of the Oberkorn Studios, he does compose, produce, mix and master music on a daily basis. Packo's debut album "FREE" released in April 2018 and his very successful EP "Completely Dangerous" released on Lauter Unfug highlight his highly versatile skills.

In 2016 & 2017 he was voted 3rd and 2nd best electronic DJs at the LNA (Luxembourg Nightlife Awards).

Since March 2018 he's hosting Luxembourg's weekly electronic music show SOUND FICTION on Radio ARA, presenting the newest Progressive House and Techno tracks as well as guest mixes from national and international DJs and producers.

In 2020 he started his own Melodic Techno and Progressive House label "Overjoy Records". The label's debut track "Evil Ghosts" became an instant success and was streamed a great many times worldwide. Later in 2020, during the Covid-19 crisis he gained a lot of attention with his livestreams on Luxembourg's RTL Today Facebook page. Some videos gained far over 10.000 views and got a huge positive feedback. Part of the success came from his weekly new creative handmade decorations.
